WALK WITH ME, narrated by Oscar-winner Benedict Cumberbatch, goes deep inside a Zen Buddhist community who have given up all their possessions and signed up to a life of chastity for one common purpose – to transform their suffering, and practice the art of mindfulness with the world-famous teacher Thich Nhat Hanh.

“Heartfelt, if not entirely satisfying, Walk With Me provides an up-close glimpse of the life of devotion, focusing on the monks and nuns who live at a rural monastery led by Zen Buddhist master Thich Nhat Hanh.” – The Hollywood Reporter

Filmed over three years, in their monastery in rural France and on the road in the USA, this visceral film is a meditation on a community grappling with existential questions and the everyday routine of monastic life.

“A MOVING AND WONDERFUL FILM” - ALEJANDRO G. IÑÁRRITU

The essence and message of this film is about true happiness, founded in mindful practice, community and service. It speaks to our times, and to the possibility of finding joy amidst constant change in our own busy lives.

Local, ordained members of Thich Nhat Hanh’s Order of Interbeing will introduce the film, inviting everyone to come present into the moment and into the energy of the film. They and other local Buddhists and Mindfulness leaders from the area will also answer questions following the film.
